FOR CONGRESS,
Judge HENRY C. ALLEN, OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY.

The HON. JOHN W. DANIEL, one of the greatest orators in Virginia, has written a letter to a gentleman in Harrisonburg in which he says: "I accept with pleasure your kind invitation to speak on MONDAY, OCTOBER 18th inst., (Court day), at HARRISONBURG, and will certainly be there." Let everybody who wants to hear one of the most gifted speakers be present to hear MAJ. DANIEL.

Tax the farmers of the Valley, but exempt the "faithful allies," is Mahone's battle-cry.

The Charlottesville Virginia's Advocate, the bolters' organ of that place, has "kicked the bucket."

The colored Republicans of Albemarle on Monday last unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Mosely for Congress.

If Readjustment is an issue in the National canvass, why don't the Mahoneites ask Gen. Hancock how much per cent. he favors?

Hugh McCulloch, the great bugbear of the Readjusters, presided at a Republican meeting at Cooper Institute, New York, last week. Strange that the Readjusters should be doing all they can to defeat Hancock and elect Garfield—the man whom McCulloch is supporting with all his strength.

Capt. Jno. S. Wise, Readjuster candidate for Congress, said in a speech last week in Richmond that he was in no sense a Democratic candidate, and that to claim support for himself as a Democrat would be to sail under false colors. This position of the Readjusters is well defined by a leader of the party.

ORGANIZE.—Only four weeks from today remains to the election. What organization is to be done by the Democratic party ought to be done at once and thoroughly. There is no time to lose by our committeemen or our clubs. Hunt up and enlist your men, and see that every one is ready for his duty on the day of election.

"We cannot and will not abandon our faithful allies." So says Mahone. But how about the "faithful allies" abandoning the 7th-of-Julyers, now that Mr. Jewell, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, has sent down a general order for the boys to fall into line? "Right dress!" "Front!" The Indian was right when he said: "white man mighty onstarn." Virginia politics just now seem as clear as mud, and when the smoke clears away after November 2d, it will probably be found that the "faithful allies" have been faithful to republicanism; the Democrats have generally stood by their party organization, as becomes them; the 7th-of-July kite has been stranded, and the pretensions of a few would-be leaders exposed to public contempt.

Mr. Edwin T. Freedly, a prominent Republican of Philadelphia, refused a campaign contribution to a Garfield and Arthur club. We commend one of his business reasons for his refusal to the consideration of the "bloody-shirters":

"In my opinion, if Philadelphia should give a large Republican majority at the next election the trade of the city will be seriously injured. Such a vote would be interpreted as indicating that our people are illiberal, full of sectional hate and monstrously ungrateful, and the commercial travelers of Philadelphia would have a rough time of it in soliciting custom in our best markets. Principles, I concede, should never be sacrificed or surrendered for commercial considerations; but where in the wisdom is so voting as to drive away trade when there is no important principle to be conserved? Why pursue a phantom when we are likely to fall into a quagmire? The South will be in the near future, if we are wise, our best market. The South of today is not the South of 1850—the majority of the people in the South now are not the rebels of 1861—but it is a new South, purified and redeemed, growing in population and wealth, and abundantly able to bless those who bless her and punish those who curse her."

INDIANA.

Here is what Hon. Dan. Voorhees says of Indiana and the chances of Democratic success in that State next week:

"Why, I tell you that in this State to day Hancock is stronger than the whole State ticket and stronger in any congressional district than any candidate for Congress; stronger in every county than any candidate for sheriff or what not, no matter how popular the candidate may be. It is amazing the magic of his name and fame. Utter the former and immediately an audience will rise and away and cheer as if some great good news had suddenly been told them, and all the audiences are immense. I never before saw or heard of such crowds and such enthusiasm. Wherever the meeting, it is swelled by thousands from near and far. It seems as if everybody in Indiana wanted to hear something about the new turn in the political tide; something about the great Union soldier upon whose reputation there is no taint. It is wonderful; it is a campaign of the people; it is not a made campaign; it is not an engineered campaign; it is not a campaign over which a State committee or county committee have an appreciable influence. These spontaneous gatherings of thousands (I spoke to one audience of more than ten thousand this afternoon, what do they know of leaders or committees? Absolutely nothing. If half the men making up the committees throughout the State should die to-morrow they would never be missed, never having been heard of by the vast body of the people who have already determined to vote the Democratic State ticket in October and the Democratic national ticket in November. If leaders are elected by less than 10,000 majority I shall be at a loss to account for the delinquency."

SIDE BY SIDE.

TWO SOULS WITH A SINGLE THOUGHT.
WHAT GARY FIELD SAID IN CONGRESS.
"ANYTHING is just which excludes and power all those infamous men who participated in the rebellion." (See Globe 30th, Cong. p. 2493.)
WHAT COLONEL FULKERSON, READJUSTER CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, SAID IN BRISTOL.
I voted for G. W. Cooke, (the Radical negro convicted of larceny) in preference to a one-legged Soldier, and am proud of it and would do it again.

A LETTER FROM GARFIELD.
We have been informed that a letter has been received by a prominent Republican of this place, from Gen. James A. Garfield, the Republican candidate for President, in which he states positively that he has written no letter to any person in Virginia, concerning his candidacy in Virginia.

UNITED STATES COURTS.

The Circuit and District Courts of the United States will convene at this place on Tuesday next, the 12th inst. Hon. Alexander Rives, District Judge, will, as usual, preside in both Courts; yet it is possible that Hon. Hugh L. Bond, Judge of the 4th Circuit, which embraces this District, will be here during the term and preside in the Circuit Court.

The following Grand Jurors and Petit Jurors have been drawn and summoned for the term:
GRAND JURORS—John J. Litton, L. J. Mohler, Joseph Harrison, Charles White, Augustus; C. A. Damon, Alleghany; John Cleek, Bath; Green Israel, Clarke; A. B. Manning, J. A. Milton, Frederick; James M. Robinson, Greene; J. B. Bradshaw, Highland; W. A. Jackson, Madison; Warren Rogers, Page; H. C. Devier, J. M. C. Harnsberger, J. C. Staples, Rush Nicholas, Rockingham; W. B. Eastham, Rappahannock; Wm. Henderson, Wm. Cochran, Rockbridge; W. H. Snapp, Joseph Moore, Shenandoah; and Houston Tansey, Warren.

PETIT JURORS—A. F. Roler, J. W. Crawford, G. A. Bantz, Benton Kolner, Augusta; B. Karna, Alleghany; Wm. Bee, Bath; Wm. Morse, Clarke; John Funkhouser, James Elborn, Frederick; J. L. Dunn, Greene; Geo. Eagle, Highland; Dudley Jenkins, Madison; A. S. Jett, Lewis Knott, Page; C. G. Selden, Solomon Gladwell, A. J. Taliaferro, E. Q. Sanford, Rockingham; H. F. Stonestreet, Rappahannock; John Gold, John M. Goodloe, Rockbridge; Geo. G. Ott, S. M. Lantz, Shenandoah; and Ewell Baker, Warren.

There is very little Federal business before the District Court, although it is expected that several indictments for violations of the Revenue laws will be made. In the Circuit Court several important land and chancery causes are to be heard; and should Judge Bond be present, a criminal case for a violation of the Revenue laws, and a writ of habeas corpus case, will be tried in this Court. It is probable that the term will last some eight or ten days.

The following are the number of Delinquent tax-payers for the year 1879, in the county of Rockingham, for non-payment of Property tax, also the amount of Personal Property tax delinquents:
Ashby District—No. of captations 141, at $1, $141; Property tax, $16.19, total, $157.19.
Central District—No. of Captations 164, at $1, $164; Property Tax, $18.72, total, $182.72.
Linville District—No. of Captations 80, at $1, $80; Property Tax, $7.88, total, $87.88.
Plains District—No. of captations 107, at $1, $107; Property Tax, $16.78, total, $123.87.
Stonewall District—No. of captations 266, at $1, $266; Property Tax, $29.71, total, $295.71. Total delinquent tax on caption and Personal property, $841.97.

REAL ESTATE DELINQUENT.
Stonewall District, $121.84; Plains District, $40.89; Ashby District, $79.74; Central District, $198.73; Linville District, $83.82. Total Real Estate delinquent tax for 1879, $480.02.

Mike Shipplett, with S. B. McFall & Bro., waits upon all customers with politeness and dispatch. Call at No. 18, East-Market Street.

J. Frost arrived here Sept. 30th. Will be around again soon.

BOGUS CERTIFICATES.—It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable medicines, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and the best of medicines. See another column.—Republican.

REGISTRATION.

Captain Cushman, Registrar for Harrisonburg, states to us that the registered voters of the Harrisonburg precinct are divided as follows on the registration books: White, 639; colored, 235—total, 874.

We would also say to voters that the registration books for this precinct will be open for registering additional names and transfer, at the store room of G. S. Christie, on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd days of October, 1880. Those who will need transfers to enable them to become voters at this precinct are also informed that it is necessary that they bring the same to the Registrar here by the above dates, as they cannot vote here on a transfer on the day of election, Harrisonburg coming under the amended law in regard to cities and towns of over 2000 inhabitants. So it is necessary to present your transfer from your last voting precinct and be registered by the dates above given to entitle you to vote here.

Republican Rally at Harrisonburg.

Capt. W. S. Lury, State canvasser for the State of Virginia, will address the Garfield and Arthur Clubs of the county of Rockingham, at the Court-house, on Friday evening, October 8, 1880, at half past 7 o'clock.

The public are respectfully invited to attend and hear this distinguished speaker discuss the issues of the present canvass.

WM. J. POINTS,
Ch'mn Co. Ex. Comm.

J. W. COLLES, Sec'y.

S. B. McFall & Bro. have put up a handsome new sign at their place of business on East-Market street, and have a handsome new "free delivery" wagon which is on the go delivering flour, feed, etc., about town. Their enterprise appears to be a success, which we are glad to see.

Dr. Frank L. Harris requests us to say he will be absent from Saturday, 9th of Oct. until Saturday, 16th, on a visit to the Dental Colleges in Philadelphia and Baltimore, in the interest of his profession.

The colored school opened on Monday, with G. A. Newman principal, and Miss L. F. Simms and J. W. Colles assistants. There were 75 pupils in attendance the first day, with a prospect of a large increase during the week.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Monday, Oct. 4, 1880.

DEER CATTLE.—The market this week has varied but little as to prices from that of last week. It was not any more active in opening than it was then, and continued with perhaps a little more firmness, or at least without any serious decline, towards the close, owing to butchers buying more freely to tide over the holiday next week. The quality was of a little better average, there being more of the better grades, next to the top, than last week. We quote at 2 25 to $5 75, most sales ranging from 3 50 to 4 00 per 100 lbs.

MILK COWS.—There is a little better demand for good cows. We quote at 25 to 45 per head, as to quality:
Best cows.....$5.25 to $5.50
Generally rated first quality.....$3.00 to $3.12
Medium or good fair quality.....$2.00 to $2.12
Ordinary this week, Ozen and Cows.....$2.25 to $2.37
Extreme range of prices.....$2.25 to $3.37
Most of the sales were from.....$3.75 to $4.00

Total receipts for the week 4710 head against 4130 last week, and 6477 head same time last year. Total sales for week 3000 head against 2749 last week and 3722 head same time last year.

SWINE.—The market is amply supplied this week, the receipts showing a marked increase in the number, as also a considerable improvement in their quality, as compared with last week. We quote rough Hogs and Sows at 6 1/2 to 7 1/2 cents per lb. net. Arrivals this week 3000 head against 4777 last week, and 6428 head same time last year.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—There is a large increase in the number of the receipts over last week, but a deterioration in the quality. Few good Sheep being among the arrivals, most of the stock consisting of common to fair grades. There is a good demand for good butcher Sheep and Lambs, and feeding Weathers, but few, unless very fine, are available. We quote butcher Sheep at 15 to 16 cents per lb. net. Arrivals this week 6742 head against 4605 last week, and 5778 head same time last year.

Meeting of the National Convention.

Is looked to with a great deal of interest by the people generally, not only of Rockingham but by all classes throughout the State. But we would here say that the importance of its assembling is nothing in comparison with the importance to each individual of good health. This can be secured by using SMITH & SHAKMAN'S Stomach Bitters, which are the best in the world for dyspepsia, loss of appetite, nervous afflictions, liver complaints, general debility and the like. Use it and no other. If not for sale in your town, have your merchant to order it, or order it yourself, of SMITH & SHAKMAN Wholesale Druggists, Baltimore, Md.

Where you can get anything in the way of Gentlemen's Wearing Apparel, Boots and Shoes excepted.

It affords an extraordinary pleasure to exhibit this splendid stock of goods, which was selected with great care by our senior, who has had an experience of a quarter of a century or more in this especial line. The public generally will do well to give us a call before purchasing, for we do not believe a larger or more select stock of Goods in our line can be found this side of Baltimore or Richmond.

Our stock embraces Suits in all styles of Goods, Overcoats, Hats, Gents' Furnishing Goods in profusion, Valises, Satchels, Trunks, Gum Goods, etc., an enumeration of which is impossible within the space of an ordinary advertisement. You must see to appreciate our stock. We therefore extend an invitation to one and all to call upon us, the sooner the better for you.

Thank you for past liberal patronage, we pledge ourselves to continued efforts to please.

DEATH OF AN AGED MAN.—George Mayberry Pennybaker was born in Shenandoah, now Page Co., Va., December 31st, 1787, and died September 27th, 1890; aged 92 years, 9 months, and 28 days.

Mr. Pennybaker was once a man of means, and operated extensively in the manufacture of iron, in Rockingham, Page, and Shenandoah counties. He was a man of energy, skill and marked liberality, having the entire confidence of his neighbors and men of business.

He was a member of a very numerous and respectable family, who are now living in different parts of the United States. In his business operations he built Newman's Furnace, Pine Forge, and the River Forge in Shenandoah county, and the Brock's Gap Forge in Rockingham Co.

The hammers, at many of these places, have ceased, and like the voice of their agent will never again be heard. His remains were interred from St. Matthew's church, Sept. 28th, followed by a large number of friends.

The finest tonic in the world, B. B. B.

ANDREW'S BAZAR for October appears as usual, sparkling with good things admirably adapted to the season. If we are competent to judge, the new Fall styles are very handsome. The proprietor of this favorite La Bazar's Paper is active and untiring in bringing out new attractions; the splendid offers he makes to his subscribers are really wonderful, when we consider the low price, only one dollar per year, at which the BAZAR is furnished. In short, business energy of the right kind is brought to bear in its management. Ladies should send 10 cents for a sample copy. W. R. Andrews, publisher, Tribune building, New York.

THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY RAILROAD.—The Riverside, published at Shenandoah Iron Works, says:

"Material trains are running on the S. V. R. R., from Waynesboro down this side of Port Republic. It is expected that they will reach Mine Hill this week. They will be detained there a week or ten days till the grading at that point is completed. After that, there will be nothing to prevent the laying of the track to Luray as fast as it can be put down. The grading is done and the trestles are going up very rapidly. By the 20th of October the locomotive will wake up the natives of this region."

No more dyspepsia. B. B. B. cures it.

The "Readjusters Lion," of Rockingham, was announced to speak at Middlebrook on last Saturday, but as there was nobody present to hear him but S. Brown Allen, he took his departure for Greenville, where he addressed two negroes and some thirty white men, most of whom left before he had fairly begun his speech. We do not think from the above showing that Paul is gaining strength in this county, and we feel sure that old Augusta will give such a majority for Allen that Paul, on the 2nd of November, will wish that he had never run for Congress.—[Staunton Spectator.]

PUBLIC EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS.—The second and last public examination of teachers for this county will be held in the Harrisonburg school building on Friday and Saturday, the 8th and 9th of October. All persons who expect to teach in the public schools the ensuing term, and have not yet been licensed, are required to attend both days. Certificates of previous years will not be renewed, nor will previous examinations be given except in extreme cases.

Democrats of East Rockingham Organizing

An Enthusiastic Meeting and Good Talk at McGahysville.

The Democrats of all portions of the county have been led to believe, through false reports and the constant flow of superfluous gas from the hangar-on and street-corner politicians that infest this town, that East-Rockingham had buried her Democracy and in its stead had thrown to the breeze the banner of Republicanism of 7th-of-July Democracy, so far diluted with radicalism and "faithful allies" as to render it nauseating and obnoxious to a Democratic stomach. This is false—as untrue as it is unjust, and the good people of that section repudiate it and heap their just indignation upon those who knowingly and willingly misrepresent them.

Without any notice by hand-bills, and with but one newspaper insertion of the fact, several gentlemen of McGahysville and vicinity determined to organize a Hancock and English Club of the 19th of May persuasion, on Saturday, Oct. 2nd, last.

Col. C. T. O'Ferrall and Winfield Liggett, who had been invited to address the Club, arrived on time (regular as usual) and proceeded at once to the school building, where already the McGahysville Band had repaired and were dispensing popular airs.

The meeting was called to order by Joseph Hammen, Esq., and Dr. T. N. Sellers elected President of the Club; Vice-President, Richard E. Hopkins; Secretary, Joseph Hammen; Treasurer, C. M. Killian. The President then introduced Winfield Liggett, Esq., Mr. L., who is very popular in this quarter with all parties, was greeted with applause. He stated that he appeared here at the instruction of the National Democratic party of the United States; he came as a Readjuster; that in that hotly contested fight of last fall he opposed the adoption of the McCulloch Bill, and the election of men who sought to put it upon the people; that then he was a Democrat and a readjuster, and that he still remained such; that in the fight for the settlement of State matters in 1891 he expected to advocate the cause of readjustment, but now the people were confronted by a matter of greater magnitude, viz: the election of a Democratic President of these United States, a matter with which the State debt of Virginia had nothing to do. He stated that he went as a delegate to the 19th of May Convention, and voted for the delegates to the Cincinnati Convention who helped to nominate Hancock and English, and by so doing it had not made him less a readjuster; that he did not intend the 7th-of-July ticket should be called the Readjusters' ticket; that it was an insult to every true Readjuster in the State, and that he for one did not have to wait until after the 7th-of-July Convention to find out whether he was a Republican or Democrat. He said they did not call a Democratic Convention on the 7th-of-July, it was a Readjusters' Convention in which were 63 Republicans, 40 of whom were negroes. He showed the fallacy of the offer of compromise by Mahone and his office-seekers, and the reasons assigned for not accepting the Shenandoah plan was that their "faithful allies" could not be abandoned. He said that the ticket put out by the 7th-of-July Convention was an insult to the people who voted the Readjuster ticket last Fall; at its head was Wm. E. Cameron, a man who has proclaimed in Virginia, through his newspaper, that we should pay to the last drop of blood and last cent of interest; next was Mayor Lamb, of Norfolk, agent for the foreign bond holder; next was Johnnie Wise, a 6 per cent. Mahone man and now a repudiator, and says he don't want to pay a darn cent. He said that Mahone and his lieutenants were using the Readjusters' organization for illegitimate purposes. The 7th-of-Julyers claimed that they nominated Hancock and English in Virginia; well if they did he expected the Democratic party nominated Garfield and Arthur. Mr. Liggett went into the record of the two National parties and sustained every accusation he made against the Republican party by Republican evidence. He appealed to all true Democrats to vote for the regular ticket and strongest, (the 19th-of-May) and next year, at the proper time, all could vote in State matters as they should see fit. His speech was a telling one, and caused Readjusters to pause and consider before they followed the party of "faithful allies" and thus endanger the vote of Virginia for Hancock and English. The meeting then adjourned until next night when that fearless advocate of Democratic principles, and the man whom the expectant Senator (H. H. Riddleberger) has been dodging for sometime, would address the Club, viz: Col. C. T. O'Ferrall.

At early candle-light a large and enthusiastic crowd had assembled in different portions of the town; discussions ran high; an occasional hurrah for Allen, Paul, Harris, or a cheer for some local celebrity kept the crowd in a good humor.

Judge O'Ferrall had an audience of at least twenty-five, all voters, who listened with marked attention to a speech of over two hours. We cannot convey in this article any idea of the Colonel's speech, its oratorical effect or its logical deductions. If there is a public man in Virginia better posted upon the issues of the day than Col. O'Ferrall, we have not yet heard him; if there is one who presents his points with more fearlessness, with more brilliancy and effect, and who renders what appeared before complicated, endless and multifarious, clear, simple and intelligible, we have yet to hear him.

He was greeted time and again with applause as he presented the blackened record of the Republican party and its leader, James A. Garfield, or when he mentioned the name of Winfield Scott Hancock.

In State matters the Colonel is in his element. He has got the "showmen" on Messrs. Mahone, the expectant U. S. Senator, Riddleberger, the man who would like to be Governor, the slippery Massey, Wise, Cameron, Paul, Lamb, and their "faithful allies," Cesar Perkins, (col.) Bob Norton, (col.) Syphax, (col.) Frank Moss, (col.) and the 63 Republican Radicals who insult the Democracy of Virginia by putting out an electoral ticket for Democrats to vote. The speech doubtless has done much good in encouraging many to work hard for the regular Democratic ticket for President, and the Democratic standard bearer for Congress, Judge H. C. Allen, of Shenandoah, while no doubt it has brought back into the ranks many who have allowed themselves unconsciously to be misled by the 7th-of-July leaders.

The Club upon the day of organization had a membership of forty-two, with other papers out which they "read the allies," Cesar Perkins, (col.) Bob Norton, (col.) Syphax, (col.) Elk Run Hancock and English Club.

An enthusiastic meeting of Democrats was held at Elk Run, in Rockingham county, on Saturday night last, October 2, 1890.

On motion, D. F. Huddle, Esq., was called to the chair, who called the meeting to order. The following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on Permanent Organization: C. W. S. Turner, J. H. Shipp, Dr. J. H. Woolf, and A. F. Workman. The committee retired, and after consultation, made the following report: For permanent Chairman, J. H. Kite; for permanent Secretary, D. F. Huddle.

On motion of J. H. Kite, the name of J. H. Shipp was substituted for permanent Chairman.

The following Vice-Presidents were appointed: C. W. Harnsberger, Alex. Kite, A. F. Workman, Henry C. Hammer, and Thos. S. Shifflett. The committee reported the following

PLATFORM.

WHEREAS, We believe that upon the success of the Democratic party in the approaching Presidential election depends the continuance of that liberty which was vouchsafed to us by that noble instrument from the pen of our most distinguished statesman, Jefferson—an instrument which the party now in power has wilfully and persistently disregarded and treated as a nullity for the last twenty years, we the citizens of Elk Run and neighborhood are met together for the purpose of giving expression to our sentiments, and of devising ways and means by which the above object may be promoted; therefore,

1st. Resolved, That we heartily endorse the principles and platform of principles put forth by the Cincinnati Democratic Convention, and pledge ourselves to use every honorable means to secure the election of our standard-bearer, Hancock and English, to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

2nd. Resolved, That we cordially invite all Democrats, irrespective of parties, to unite with us in the support of the May electoral ticket.

3rd. Resolved, That we earnestly endorse the action of the recent Congressional Convention and the nomination for Congress of Judge Henry C. Allen, of Shenandoah county—a patriot and an honest man, a gentleman every way worthy to represent our District in the Congress of the United States, and we pledge to him the cordial and united support of this Club.

The above was adopted unanimously.

C. W. S. Turner, D. F. Huddle and J. H. Kite were appointed an Exec. Committee.

Mr. Turner, being solicited, delivered a speech replete with logic and sound common sense, which was loudly applauded.

The following are the members of our Club: J. R. Cover, E. Q. Sanford, Thos. S. Shifflett, S. P. Shifflett, Geo. W. Riddle, A. F. Workman, Geo. W. Davis, C. W. S. Turner, J. E. Conrad, J. H. Kite, J. ACCIDENT.

ON THE LOOKOUT.—On Sunday afternoon last the "bill car" belonging to Cooper, Bailey & Co.'s Great London Circus and Menagerie arrived in this place and was greeted by three or four hundred people, principally boys, who were on the lookout for the "show car" about the depot grounds. The car is a very handsome and commodious affair, and it is a new departure from the old-time show business. A few years more and the monster shows will carry their own railroads along for self-propulsion, when the problem as to how a fellow can hold himself out by arm's length by the seat of his pants will be solved. On Saturday the steam piano, another means of advertisement, passed through here, giving us a matinee performance as it passed.

An accident happened on Sunday whilst trying to get two cats on a small siding. A train of railroad iron on a down grade got away from the brakemen and rushed down upon about a half-dozen cars standing upon the siding, breaking the upright bumper at the end of the track, tearing away the platform at the wheat-loading track, and carrying away about ten feet of track and letting some of the cars down upon the ground. No serious harm was done to the cars, which seemed to stand the concussion first-rate.

The "Virginias" for September is an unusually interesting number. The sketch of the Kanawha River Improvement by Lieut. Thomas Turtle, U. S. Engineer, which is illustrated by accurate drawings of the famous locks constructed along that important improvement, will be read with the interest it richly merits. There is another exhaustive article on the Iron Ores of Virginia and West Virginia, by Prof. Wm. B. Rogers, which will attract much notice from iron men and scientists; and another paper furnished by Prof. J. L. Campbell, "The Resources of Brock's Gap," with a topographical map by Maj. Hotchkiss, the editor, adds much to the interest of this valuable number of a most valuable and enterprising journal.

No family should be without "B. B. B."

CASE.—A good many persons hereabouts seem to think we are working for fun. To disabuse their minds we may remark that it is a serious mistake, as they will find out speedily if they fail to give attention to bills due us for work done. With us job printing is a strictly cash matter, and those who cannot or do not intend to pay for it when done are respectfully requested not to bring it to this office. This applies to all with whom we have not running accounts, subject to settlement on call.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AT FORESTVILLE.—Col. C. T. O'Ferrall and Hon. J. T. Harris addressed the people at Forestville last Saturday night. We are informed, that Col. O'Ferrall made one of the ablest and most eloquent speeches that has been made during this campaign; and the Hon. John T. Harris, assailed, made one of the most forcible addresses our Forestville friends ever listened to. We learn they made a most favorable impression.

The decided growth of small farming in the Southern States and its relation to politics, are discussed by Sidney Lanier in the October Scribner. While not insisting on any contrast of the sections, Lanier has invented a phrase which cleverly describes the bonanza farming of the north west, with its homestead life. "It is not farming at all," he says; "it is mining for wheat."

FROM MOUNT CRAWFORD.

Mr. Crawford has an active and growing political organization in her Hancock and English club, numbering more than 135 members. Her views are resolutely following the footsteps of their fathers in their firm and unalterable adherence to Democratic principles.

On Friday evening last there was a good turnout of ladies and gentlemen, with stirring music from the excellent cornet band of the place, to hear an able and convincing speech of two hours, from your townsman, Judge O'Ferrall.

The president of the club should have stated, when presenting the Judge, that a formal introduction to a Rockingham audience was unnecessary, as he has been well and favorably known to her people for nearly twenty years. They have honored him with high official position, both in their halls of legislation and in the ranks of the judiciary.

As a legislator he was known to be active, alert and zealous for the interests and well-being of his constituency; and as judge of the county court, after serving a term of six years, he turned over to his successor in office an ermine as spotless as the snow.

He was known, however, to many of our people even before these "piping times of peace." When the crimson tide of war surged wildly back and forth over our beautiful Valley, and desolation sat enthroned, where green fields and smiling homesteads now look out to greet the enraptured gaze; when, baring his bosom with the heroic devotion of an ancient knight, he met the deadly assaults of a ruthless invader, and "struck for our altars and our fires, for the green graves of our sires, God and our native land."

And now when our dear old native State is in peril from domestic foes; when Radicalism and Demagoguery have struck hands in a united effort to overthrow the Democratic party in Virginia, he is again found in the front ranks of those who are nobly battling for the continued supremacy of the great Anglo-Saxon race to which we all belong.

Think! O think, Virginians! of the harrowing spectacle of your native State, so grand in the past, through the agency of her own sons, struck down by these "twin relics of barbarism," and lying prostrate at the feet of a relentless enemy! How sadly appropriate then will be the lines quoted by Colonel Skinner at Staunton:

"Like the struck eagle, stretched upon the plain,
No more through rolling clouds to soar again,
Thou her own feather in the fatal dart,
That winged the shaft which quivers in her heart.
Keen are her pangs, but keener far to feel
She nursed the pining that impelled the steel.
While the same plume that had warmed her nest,
Drank the last life-drop from her bleeding breast."

God forbid! We have an abiding faith in her stalwart sons, who have never yet failed to respond when duty, in clarion tones, has called them to the defence of PRINCIPLE.

At the close of this pleasant and profitable meeting of the club, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Hancock and English Club of Mt. Crawford are due and are hereby tendered to Judge Chas. T. O'Ferrall for the able and instructive address he has favored us with this evening. The same is also due to the membership of the Mt. Crawford Cornet Band for the delightful music that has contributed so much to the pleasure of the occasion; and to the ladies also of town and vicinity, who have graced our meeting with their presence, we tender our acknowledgements, and invite them to be present at all subsequent public meetings during the campaign.

THE FARM AND HOME.

GROOMING HORSES.

The horse being the most important machine in the farmer's establishment, care should be taken to preserve him as perfect a state of health and condition as possible. The ordinary care of a horse consists in feeding and watering him, and when from neglect he suffers, dosing him with balls and drenches. Physicking a horse may be avoided altogether by treating him properly. Give him a roomy, airy stable; a loose box or stall is preferable to tying up with the halter. Clean out his stable daily; nothing is more hurtful to the feet of a horse than to permit him to stand in a pile of fermenting manure. With a clean bed and left loose in his stall, he will of his own instinct avoid lying in filth, and much labor in cleaning will be saved. Every night, when the day's work is done, wash his feet and legs free from mud and dirt, and in winter clean off all ice or snow. Cleanliness is an absolute preventive of grease and other diseases which commonly affect the feet and legs of horses. Have handy in the stable a piece of rough sacking, and rub his legs and knee joints for the night. A day's ploughing or harrowing over soft, yielding soil is excessively hard work for the legs both of horses and men, and this plan of rubbing with a coarse cloth is good for either. Feed regularly and groom morning and night, and you may throw physic to the dogs.

PICKLES.

GREEN TOMATO PICKLES.—One peck of green tomatoes, 1 cupful of sugar, 1 tablespoonful of cinnamon, 1 of cloves, 1 of allspice, and 1 of white mustard-seed, all ground. Lay the tomatoes, sliced, with a little salt between the layers, over night; then drain off the water, cover it with vinegar, add spices and sugar, and boil a few minutes, stirring to prevent burning.

PICKLED SEED CUCUMBERS.—Pare ripe cucumbers, take out the seeds, wash in cold water and wipe dry with a cloth. Cut in strips and pour cold vinegar over them. Let them stand 24 hours. If the vinegar is weak pour away part and add new. To 1 quart of vinegar add 1 1/2 pounds of sugar, 1 ounce of cinnamon buds, and the cucumbers; boil until the cucumbers look clean. After a few days they will be ready for use, and are excellent.

CHOW-CHOW.—One quart of small cucumbers, 1 pint of onions, 1 quart of green tomatoes sliced, 1 cauliflower cut in strips, 3 red peppers sliced; scald in salt and water. After draining pour over it hot vinegar and let it stand two or three days; then drain off the old vinegar. Take 1 package of English mustard, 1 quart of vinegar, 1 1/2 cupful of brown sugar and 1 cupful of flour; boil the vinegar; mix up the other ingredients in a little cold vinegar, and pour into the hot; let it boil up, and pour (while hot) over the pickles.

KEEP THE COWS CLEAN.—To keep milk clean while in the act of drawing it, the cow must be clean, her bag and teats washed and wiped before commencing to milk her and the milkman's hands be then washed. After straining and setting see that no foul air can come from any quarter to taint the milk, and for this we must be particularly careful, for such an often borne on a strong breeze fully a mile off or more from the place where it originated. It is, of course, presupposed that all vessels used for holding the milk are kept clean and entirely clear of every sort of odors. We have often seen the dairy house placed close to the cattle yard, poultry house, and what is foulest of all a dirty pig pen. No wonder this is the cause so much butter and cheese sent to the market are not fit to be eaten.

TO MEND RUBBER HOSE.—William Hunt, New York city, writes:—The inclosed method of mending rubber hose ought to be known to everybody. I mended mine in several places two or three years ago, and it is yet strong and good. The plumbers said there was no other way but to use couplings at a dollar each. I used iron pipe, cut to order, three inches long, costing three cents each. Cut the hose apart where it is defective; obtain from any gas-fitter a piece of iron pipe two or three inches long; twist the hose over it until the ends meet, wrap with strong twine, well waxed, and it will last a time.

KINDNESS TO HORSES.—The horse can be reclaimed from many vicious habits by the law of kindness. When George M. Patchen was in the zenith of his glory, and matched the queen of trotters, Flora Temple, they chanced to change horses. This was disgusting to the old hero of stallions. He fought the new-comer till they were forced to restore his old groom. When his old, cherished groom, who had slept in the stable for years, returned, the horse resumed his former quietude, and trotted that season some of his most celebrated races.—Cor. West Rural.

CURE FOR THE BITES OF A MAD DOG.—A medical writer says:—"Spirits of harts-horn is an excellent remedy. The wound should be bathed constantly with it, and three or four doses taken inwardly during the day. The harts-horn decomposes chemically, and immediately alters and destroys its deleteriousness."

Surely it is preferable, if possible, to suspend our bridge of faith from the granite piers of knowledge.

Sarsaparilla

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effective alterative available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced a remedy so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas,

Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples,

Itches, Boils, Tumors, Tetters,

Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head,

Ring-worm, Ucers, Sores, Rheumatism, Nervous Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and

Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections

of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing

it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates the vital functions, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease of the blood need despair who will give AYE'S

SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is fully to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, which disease becomes more deeply seated. AYE'S SARSAPARILLA is a concentrated curative power, and is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known.

Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions whom it has benefitted.

CHURCH & CO'S

ABSOLUTELY PURE

IMPURE Bicarb Soda is a slightly dirty white color. It may appear white, but it is not. A test is to add a few drops of hydrochloric acid. A "PURE"

"SODA" BRAND will show

the difference.

See that your Baking Soda is white and PURE, and that it is ALL

SIMILAR SUBSTANCES used for food.

A simple but severe test of the comparative value of different brands of Soda is to dissolve a small amount of each in water with about a pint of water (not preferred) in clear glasses, stirring until all is thoroughly dissolved. The delica-teous insoluble matter in the inferior Soda will be shown after settling some twenty minutes, or sooner, by the milky appearance of the solution, and the quantity of floating scum matter according to quality.

Be sure and ask for Church & Co's Soda, and see that their name is on the package and you will get the purest and whitest made. The use of it with your milk, in preparing Baking Powder, saves twenty times its cost.

See one pound package for valuable information and read carefully.
